

Friday November 18, 2011

2012 budget must elaborate on new pay policy – CEPA

The Executive Director of the Center for Policy Analysis (CEPA), Dr. Joe Abbey, has been speaking about his expectations in the 2012 budget.

He told Radio Ghana that government must give details of the migration of public sector workers unto the Single Spine Salary Scheme to ensure peace on the labour front

Dr. Abbey is of the view that revenue from the oil find must be channelled into training the human resource base of the country.

Dr. Abbey also called for massive investment in the gas infrastructure to produce gas for domestic use and for the generation of power.

Source: GBC NEWS