

Friday December 16, 2011

Government asked to publish feasibility studies on Chinese loan to ensure transparency

The Executive Director of Centre for Policy Analysis, Dr Joe Abbey has asked government to publish all feasibility studies and other activities relating to the $ 3b Chinese loan.

He said this will ensure transparency.

Dr Abbey told Radio Ghana that care must be taken to prevent over borrowing so that Ghana does not go HIPC again.

He welcomed the enhancement of Ghana's credit worthiness by the IMF.

Source: GBC Radio